Drugs & Dragons

Embark on an epic 20-session adventure filled with intrigue, betrayal, and moral choices that will test even the most steadfast heroes. In this tale, the players start as newly graduated dragon riders trying to make their mark in a world upended by peace and shifting alliances. But when a charismatic demon named Agron offers them an unexpected opportunity, they are thrown into a whirlwind of rivalries, powerful magic, and shadowy deals.

From delivering mysterious packages and confronting rogue wizards to navigating alliances between demons and kings, players will face countless decisions that shape their fate and the world around them. Will they stand by Agron as he battles internal and external enemies to protect his hard-earned position, or will they be tempted by darker forces and the whispers of power offered by demons? With each session, secrets unravel, alliances shift, and the stakes rise, leading to a climactic battle where choices will decide the future of kingdoms. Buckle up for a campaign filled with dragon flights, intense battles, and the challenging question of who truly holds the moral high ground.
